Foreword

With the passing of time, the echoes of our school life will grow fainter and fainter, and then die away. Gone forever will be the routine of school life, the fun we had, and the friends we made. It is the hope of the 1956 Saukee Annual Staff that, as you glance through this book in the years to come, you will recapture those moments--and the echoes will begin again.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this annual to you, Mrs. Meyer, to express our appreciation of your assistance to us in our four years of high school.

Your happy disposition and cheerful smile will be remembered by us all through the years.

MR. VOSHALL

"You are a fortunate and privileged group of students in having the opportunity to attend school in one of the best and most up to date school plants to be found in any community comparable in size to the Pittsfield area which the school serves.

The Pittsfield Community High School is a splendid example of how four or five communities can pool their resources and build a modern school plant adequate to meet the needs of all the boys and girls living in the area.

Parents and students of Baylis, Detroit, Pittsfield, Rockport, Nebo, New Salem, Summer Hill and Time are all extremely proud of the educational facilities now afforded all these communities.

It is indeed a significant day for education because for the first time in the history of public education in the area now represented by the Pittsfield Community Unit District No. 10 each and every boy and girl has the opportunity to attend school in a good modern, and up to date plant with an exceptionally good and well-qualified faculty, each a specialist in his field.

We now have a High School with a curriculum broad enough to meet the needs of all the boys and girls who attend and an extra curricular program which gives every student an opportunity to develop his talents to the fullest extent.

I SALUTE THE CLASS OF 1956 UPON THE HONOR ACCORDED IT IN BEING THE FIRST CLASS TO GRADUATE FROM THIS NEW SCHOOL PLANT OF WHICH WE ARE ALL SO PROUD. TO YOU WE WISH ALL THE SUCCESS AND HAPPINESS POSSIBLE!"

J. H. Voshall, Superintendent

Wade Grimes, Edgar Richards, Mr. Voshall, Ronald Sidwell, Dean Sneed, Virgil Parks, Arthur Browning, Clyde Hollaway.

Mr. Metternich, for your wonderful assistance in our time of need, your friendly ways to the students, and for the untiring patience and efforts you have shown to help make us better students.

We wish to salute you, Mr. Metternich, for your willingness to help all of us, as the principal of our school.

Mr. Metternich

Miss Irick

Miss Irick, we wish to thank you for your never-ending patience and guidance you have shown us during our four years with you. You have won many friends and will be remembered for your cheerfulness, dependability, and co-operation.

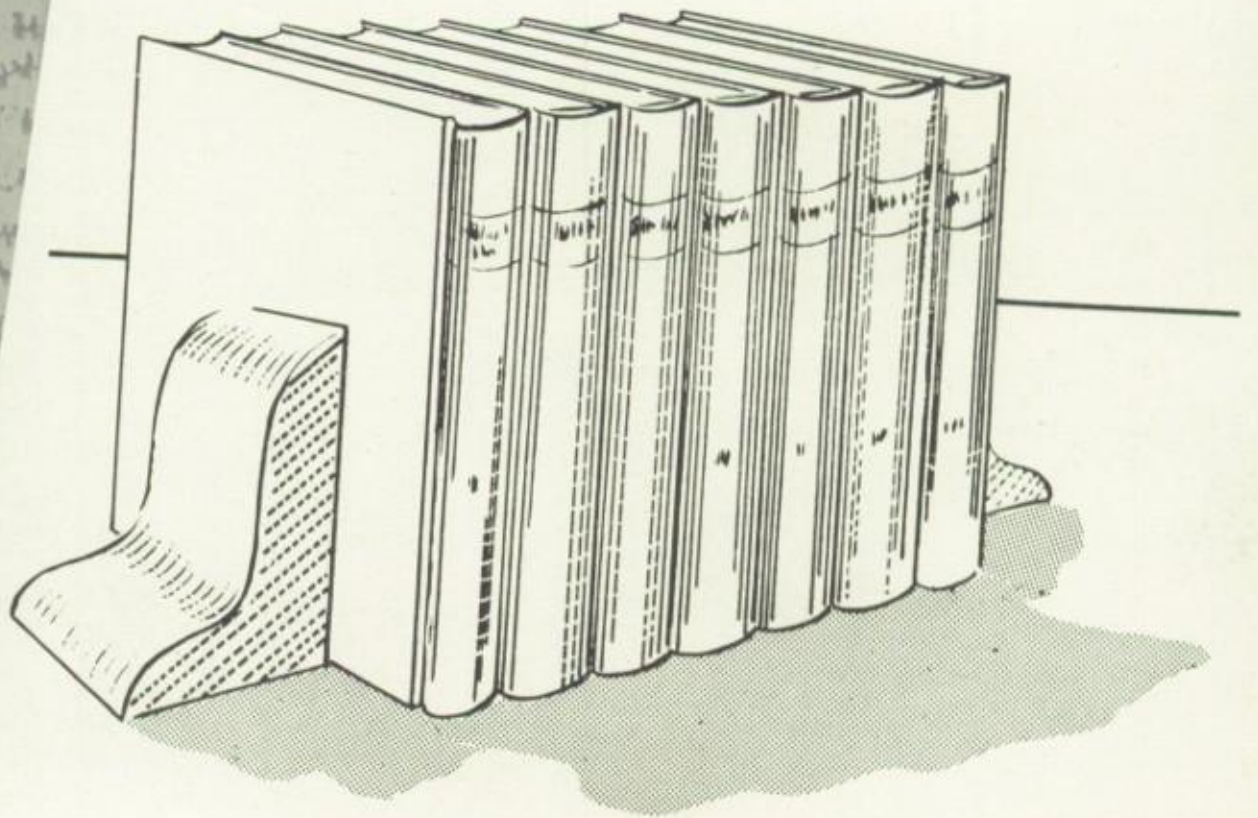

DEDICATION OF PITTSFIELD SCHOOL

Governor William G. Stratton at the dedication of the new Pittsfield High School.

We are indeed grateful to have a beautiful new high school which is one of the finest in the Middle West. We are truly one of the most fortunate communities, and we are thankful for everything.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

Of The Senior Class of 1956, P.H.S.

When in course of school events, it becomes necessary for the Senior Class to dissolve the education bonds which have connected it to the other classes, and to assume the duties of citizenship for which their school life has prepared them, a decent respect to the opinion of the other classes requires that they should transcribe this history leading up to their graduation.

We, the Senior Class of 1956, entered the halls of P. H. S. in the fall of 1952, feeling a bit apprehensive but eager to begin our higher education. Our class congress elected Paul Smith, President; Don Harter, Vice President; Norma Jones, Secretary; and Khoy Sanderson, Treasurer. Joyce Gard, Anne Aldrich, and Roger Frazier were to represent us on the Student Council. The class representatives to Homecoming were Helen Winston and Connie Shue. Mr. Kuethe was our very patient advisor.

As our second session convened, we elected as class officers, Bill Ferguson, President; Khoy Sanderson, Vice President; Tom Plattner, Secretary; and Carole Melton, Treasurer. Miss Bueker was a very helpful advisor during this year. Annie Dimmitt, Anne Aldrich, and Tom Petty were elected to the Student Council. Our class representatives to the Homecoming were Ina Strother and Carole Melton.

As Junior Statesmen, we began our third session by electing class officers Tom Petty, President; Paul Smith, Vice President; Connie Shue, Secretary; Bill Goodin, Treasurer. Annie Dimmitt, Paul Payne, and Bill Ferguson represented our class on the Student Council. Class representatives at Homecoming were Annie Dimmitt and Anne Aldrich. Our play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," was under the leadership of Miss Harman. The proceeds were used to finance the Junior-Senior Prom, "Garden In The Rain," of which Ina Strother was crowned Queen. Miss McGuire was our very considerate and helpful advisor this year.

Taking our honored places as Senior statesmen, we chose as our governing body Don Smith, President; Beverly Harris, Vice President; Mary Lee Benjamin, Secretary; and Harley Whitlock, Treasurer. Jim Gay, Joyce Gard, and Reg Dunham represented us on the Student Council. Annie Dimmitt presided as President. Ten senior girls were attendants to our Homecoming Queen, Connie Shue. A special thanks goes to Mr. Fesler for his very excellent leadership during our senior year. And for the support of this Declaration and with a firm reliance on what the future holds for us, we mutually pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.

PROPHECY

In the year of 1975 during one of our journeys we stopped at Texas to watch the Heavyweight Championship bout between Bette "Killer" Jones and Ina "Slugger" Strother. The referee, Tom "Break-it-up" Petty, is having quite a time staying in the ring.

Next we fly to Florida where we find that Carole Melton and Allan Johnson are happily married and are the owners of the Midnight Motel in Palm Beach. Out on the beach we find life guard, Reginald Dunham, who has just rescued Linda Watson, the star flute soloist at the Crystall Ball Night Club.

In Tennessee we see Mary Graham, Carolyn Keys, Emerson Retzer, and Edward Smith as cotton-pickers on the Ferguson Cotton Plantation.

Here we are in New York where we find Ann Rupert driving a new jet-cycle which was designed and built by Phil Benson.

In Chicago we see Don Harter and Lawrence Lansdon as shoe shine boys.

Next we go to Hollywood where we find Carolyn Deemer has just taken the place of Hopalong Cassidy, and Sue Mueller as Rita Hayworth.

In Los Angeles we learn there is a championship feather-weight tag match between Richard Reinhardt and Jim Wade vs. Roger Frazier and Don Smith.

Gladys Norris and Nancy Pennock are explorers in the Antartica, who have just discovered a city of ice.

Ann Aldrich who is now living in New York is the owner of a Frab It Here drugstore, Daisy McAnarney and Reta Sparks, are employed at Ann's drugstore.

From Linda Claus, who is a nurse in the Casteel Memorial Hospital, dedicated by Myron Casteed, we learn that Ruth Ann Perrine and Doris Norton are missionaries in Africa.

Dorothy Lightle and Winona Windsor are employed at the Bowman Insurance Agency.

Marion Bagent, Tom Dicke, Paul Smith, Junior Looper, and Charles Borrowman are hot-rod racers at the Indianapolis Speedway. Tom Dicke just broke the worlds hot-rod speed record at 250 miles an hour.

We have just arrived on Mars in our flying saucer where we met Lois Ann Pruett and Mary Grammer who tell us there is going to be a big football game between Mars and Mercury where we will see Bill Goodin, Tom Plattner, Bob Springer, Dave Ruble and Khoy Sanderson playing for Mars. These boys are some of the seniors who graduated from P. H. S. in "56"

THE STORY OF THE PLAY

"Principal for a Day!"...An exciting dream. But, it actually comes true at Ames High School.

It all begins because Principal Lundquist just has to be away to speak at the State Principal's Convention. Miss Dill, regular school secretary, has a terrible cold and insists on going home for the day. The vice-principal, Mr. Obermayer, is confined to his bed with a high fever. Then it is that Mr. Ames, school board president, decrees that the student council officers shall take over for the day. And that's how Pamela Jones becomes acting principal!

She gets off to a bad start when, in trying to buzz for the janitor, she rings the fire alarm bell instead. Then she has to decide whether or not to stand behind an unpopular teacher and keep the school's star athlete out of the State Basketball Tournament. Not the least of Pam's worries is good-natured "Buzz" Baily, acting-vice-principal, who grandly advises a gossip student that "There will be no more homework!" Then there's Faversham Lightly, Jr., who would rather sleep than eat and to Pam's grief, the "Home Ec" teacher is late and Shalimar Ames, her hated rival, turns on her honeyed charm to lure the reluctant "Buzz" into taking over the class with some truly astonishing results!

SEVENTEENTH SUMMER

Angie knew this summer would be different! She could tell by the different way she felt about everything--by the odd feeling she had when she went to the drug store and all the other girls were there with dates. She noticed Jack Duluth especially. He was good looking the best basketball player in the county. Many things happened during this seventeenth summer; meeting Jack, even dating him and finally going steady with him. Near the summer's end Jack and Angie break-up. As the day of leaving for college comes, Jack and Angie clear up their difficulties and the play ends on a heartwarming note of happiness and understanding as Angie leaves her wonderful seventeenth summer.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Angie, the girl, Joyce Gard; Margaret, her engaged sister, Joyce Fields; Lorraine; her hopeful sister, Norma Jones; Kitty, her little sister, Mary Lee Benjamin; Mrs. Morrow, her mother, Ann Rupert; Mr. Morrow, her father, Gene Turnbaugh; Jack, the boy, Jim Gay; Art, Margaret's fiance, Gene Stauffer; Martin, Lorraine's hope, Reg Dunham; Jane, a menace, Anne Aldrich; Tony, a boy friend, Roger Frazier; Margie, a girl friend, Dorothy Lightle; Fitz, her "steady", Bill Vannatta.

The play was directed by Miss Helen Harman. The proceeds will be used for the senior trip in the spring.

Junior-Senior Prom 1955 "Garden in the Rain"

The theme of the Junior-Senior Prom of 1955 was "Garden In The Rain." It was held at the Legion Hall on May 5th.

Ina Strother was crowned Queen by Tom Petty, President of the Junior class. Her attendants were Norma Jones and Connie Shue. The Queen led the Grand March and the music for dancing was furnished by the Yachtsmen. The program consisted of a vocal rendition by a quartet consisting of Bette Jones, Norma Jones, Annie Dimmitt, and Ina Strother. A trio known as the "Three Juniors" (Bill Ferguson, Khoy Sanderson, and Reg Dunham) gave a pantomime. A flute solo was given by Linda Watson. Lynda Halpin gave a vocal solo.

Everyone had a wonderful time at the first all-night Prom.

Homecoming 1955 - - - What A Memory !

It was a success from the first piece of crepe paper to the last. The theme of the gym decorations, which were done so nicely, by the Student Council, was "October". There were bats hanging all over the place and autumn leaves scattered here and there. Of course the main event, the crowning of the queen, was the high-light of it all. Miss Connie Shue, made a perfect queen to be crowned by Co-captain, Tom Petty. Thanks to everyone who made it a huge success---and it was the first Homecoming to be held in the new high school.

Homecoming Queen, Connie Shue, and some of the highlights of Homecoming of 1955 that made it such a success.
